

II. Kőszeg Modell Contest and Exhibition

6-7. november 2010

REGULATION

Entry

From 9 to 13 on 6 of November in 2010 on the spot. The entry and the admission are free. By entering the competition you accept the rules, and who breaks the rules will be barred out immediately. In the competition category optional No. models startable. One person can enter in more categories with more models. All competitors could be awarded only once in each category. The models should be taken on their place by the entering. After that the competitor should not move his model, except if the judge or the organizers ask him for it. Competitors could get back their models after the announcement of results. In case of special situations competitors could collate with the organizers about the time of getting back of their models. If somebody loses or doesn't bring the justificative coupon he can take his model over last.

Opening

At 1330 o'clock on 6 of November in 2010.

Judging

From half past 14 on 6 of November in 2010. The jury consists of 2 invited members and a member of Kőszegi Model Club. Judges have the right to create new categories, or delete them after reconciliation with the organizers.

Judges have also the right to order the false entered models into the right category, or to bar out a model if they feel it necessary to do. The judging happens to a survey.

Modells

In case of prototypes, rare vehicles, special camouflages ect. documentation is required. We ask you to make some copies of your documentation, as we can not be responsible for them. We also ask you to enclose the building guide only in case of no other documentation is available.

All models should be entered with the builders' name. The models will have a sequential number given by the organizers for identification purpose.

Award and evaluation

Only the entered models can be awarded.

Venue of the event:

Béri Balogh Elementary School
9730 Kőszeg, Deák Ferenc street 6
47° 38' 12.92" N
16° 54' 67.07" E